Very many interesting questions arise in connection with this. The railroads of the south had been taken possession of by the Confederate government, and were subsequently captured by our forces. They were then the property of the United States. By what right fidd Andrew Johnson, on the Sth of August, 1995, give away millions of dellars worth of government property? By what authority has the President restored confiscated property? By the same reasoning that led to the above decision, the title to much of this class of property would be vested to the United States. By many the property of the United States of the work of t
